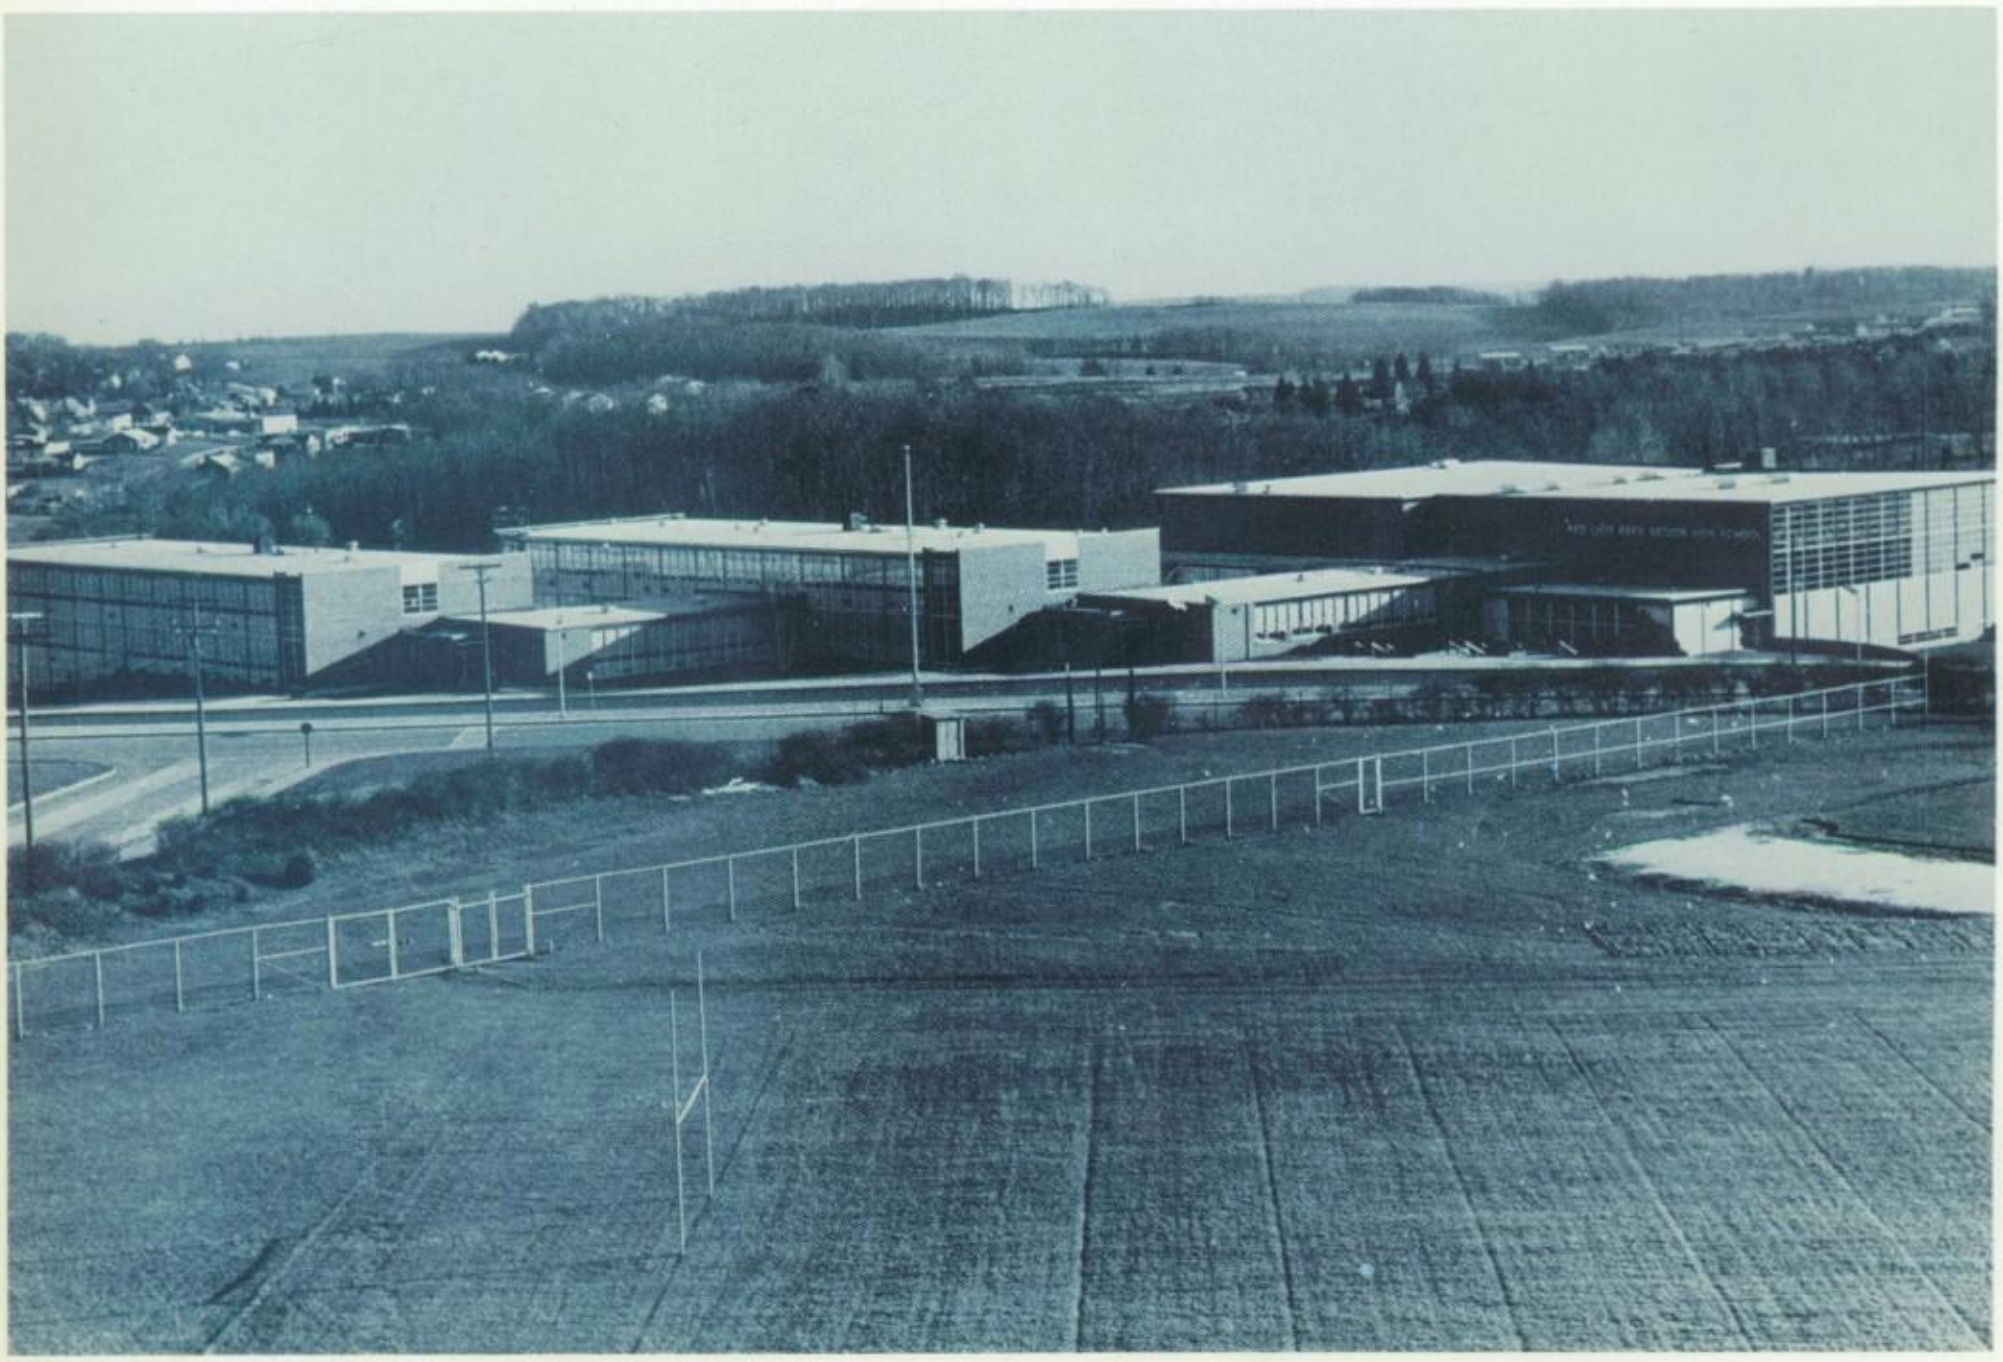
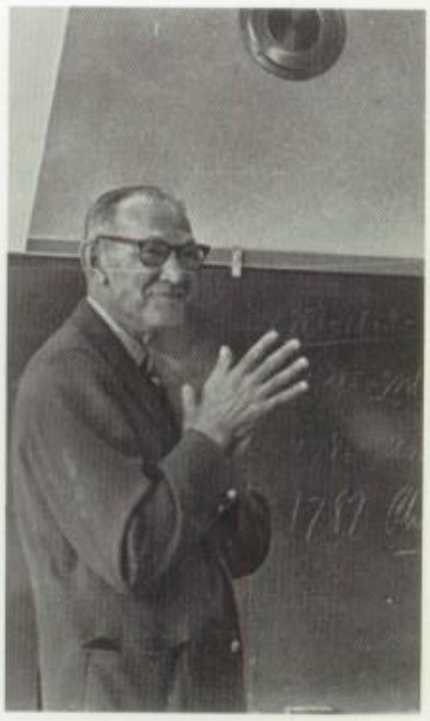
THE 1971 LION

Red Lion Area Senior High School
200 Horace Mann Avenue
Red Lion, Pennsylvania



FOREWORD

As we seniors are about to take a place in society, we are very concerned about the unrest within our country and about the unrest within our world. Peace between and within countries must rest on the love between its citizens, for they are the country; they hold the nation together. Peace can only be achieved through understanding our fellowmen, through self-sacrifice, through faith, through respect, and through love. We realize the solutions for peace are not easy to attain; but as we attempt these solutions, let us remember the words of Herbert Hoover, "Peace is not made at the council tables, or by treaties, but in the hearts of men."



Clair A. Frits

The Senior Class proudly dedicates the 1971 Lion to Mr. Clair A. Frits who has devoted forty-one years to Red Lion students.

Having received his degree in 1929 from Grove City, Mr. Frits began his teaching career at Monongahela School. He was also employed for a short time by the Indiana High School of Pennsylvania. Mr. Frits came to Red Lion in 1931 and held a teaching position until August 1942. During these years he also received his Master of Education Degree from Pennsylvania State University. After a temporary stay at the Red Lion Tool and Engineering Company, he returned to Red Lion High School and has remained with us from September 1943.

Mr. Frits has served Red Lion in many capacities. He now teaches political science and sociology and serves as the history department chairman, a position he has held for several years. In past years Mr. Frits has also served as Junior High Basketball Coach and Assistant Football Coach. He has also helped prepare Commencement speeches.

After many years of devotion to the teaching profession, students have continually chosen Mr. Frits as their favorite teacher. In gratitude for his forty-one years of service, the Senior Class is indeed honored to dedicate the 1971 Lion to Clair Frits . . . our favorite teacher.

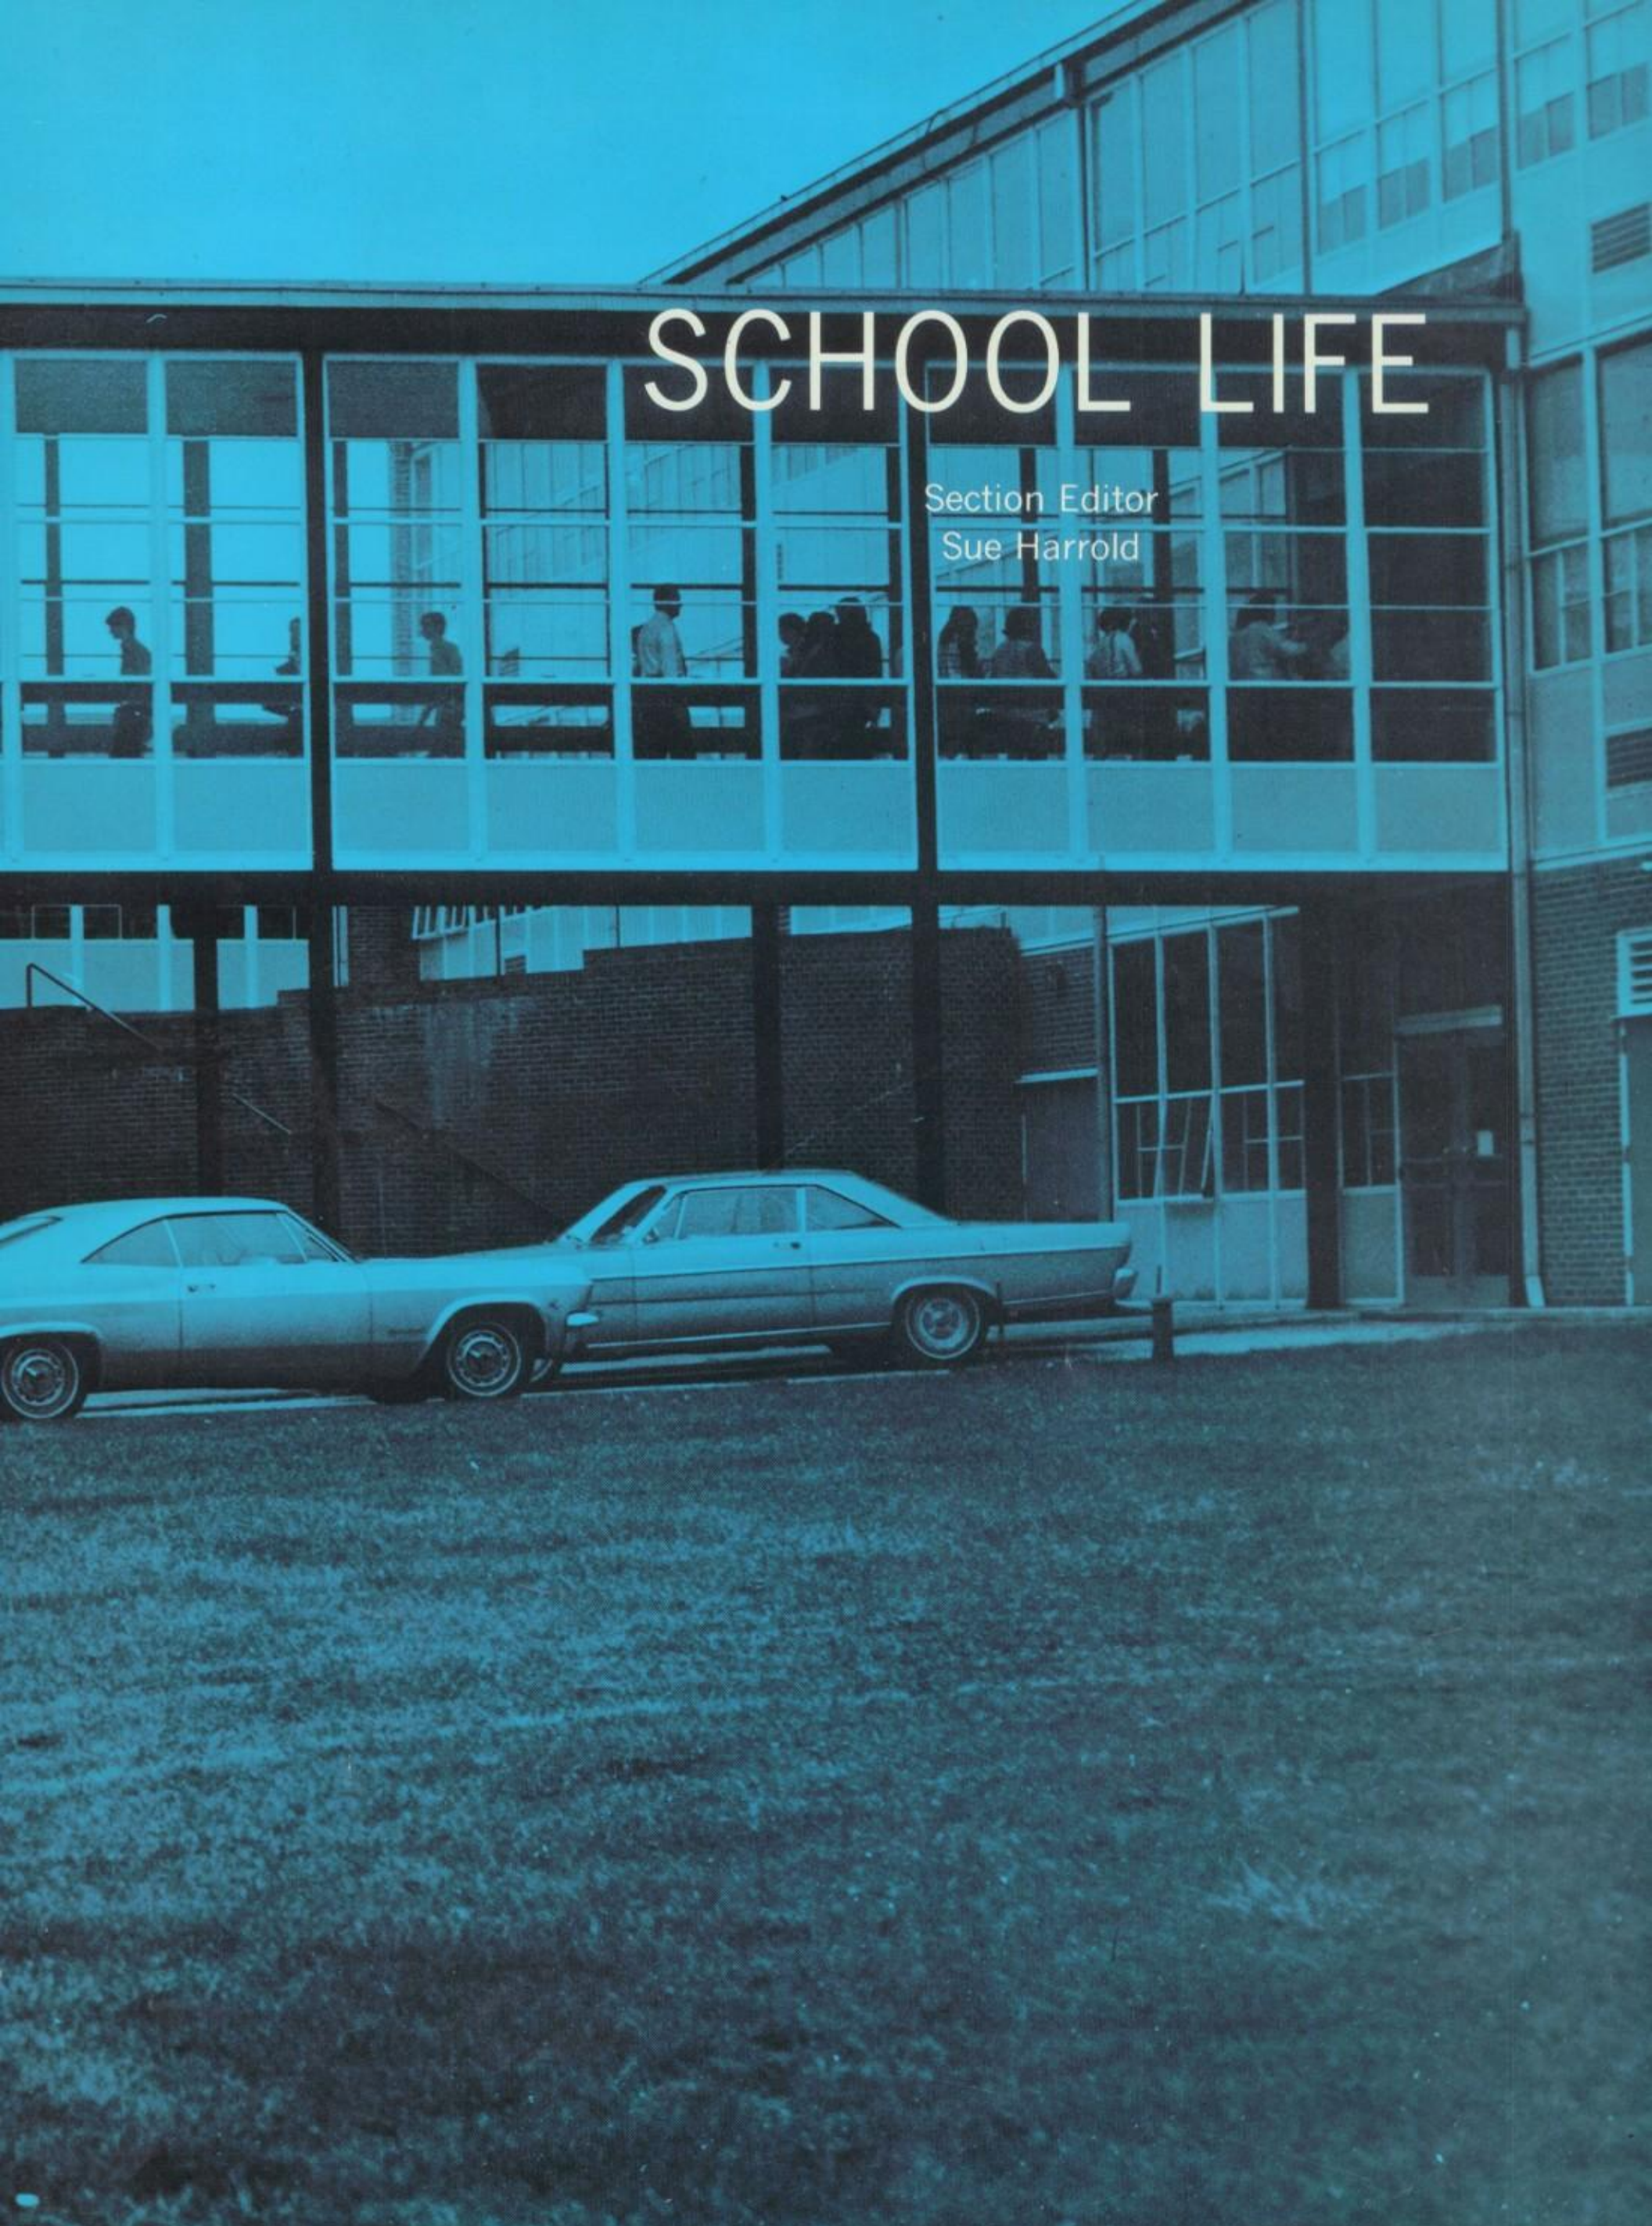
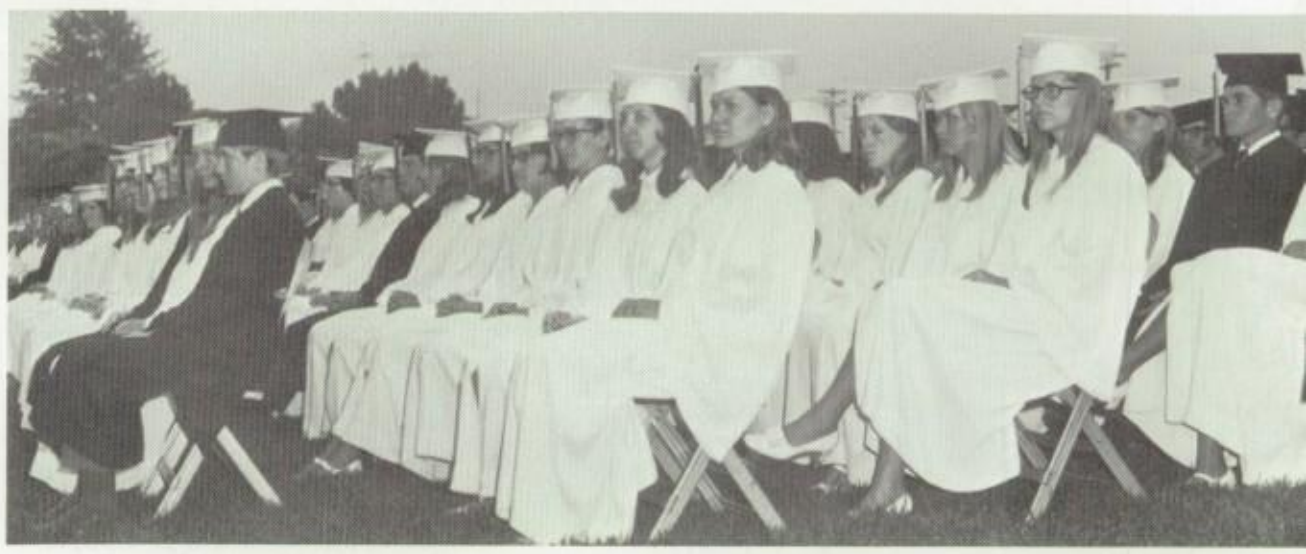
SCHOOL LIFE

Section Editor
Sue Harrold



On June 4, 1970, commencement exercises were held and another group of seniors, full of hopes and dreams, went out to face the world with much ambition and vigor. They were so eager to start their life out of school and to be completely on their own . . . to have their freedom of choice in many areas. They now had their opportunity to begin their life in society. Their future plans were many and varied.

With these thoughts in mind, Paul Brant, senior class president, gave the welcoming address, and Jim Loyer spoke on the topic "The Seventies — What's in Store?" The main speaker was Mr. Salom Rizk who spoke on the topic "America is More than a Country." The honor students were then recognized by Mr. Fitzkee, and to conclude the program, Mr. Donald Snyder and Mr. Arden Blain presented the 1970 graduates with their diplomas . . . their passports to a new world.



Sometime in the month of May, Juniors and Seniors deck themselves with formal attire and attend one of the biggest highlights of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. "Southern Enchantment" was the theme of the 1969-70 prom with decorations and atmosphere of the Southern hospitality. Everyone enjoyed socializing with their classmates and faculty while dancing to the music of the Bill Collins Orchestra.

Following the dance, an all night party was held in the lobby and auditorium. Special entertainment was provided by D. K. Ernst who held everyone in a trance by exhibiting his skill of hypnotism.

All too soon the evening came to a close; and the tired, weary, but happy Juniors and Seniors looked forward to the upcoming year and once again the prom.

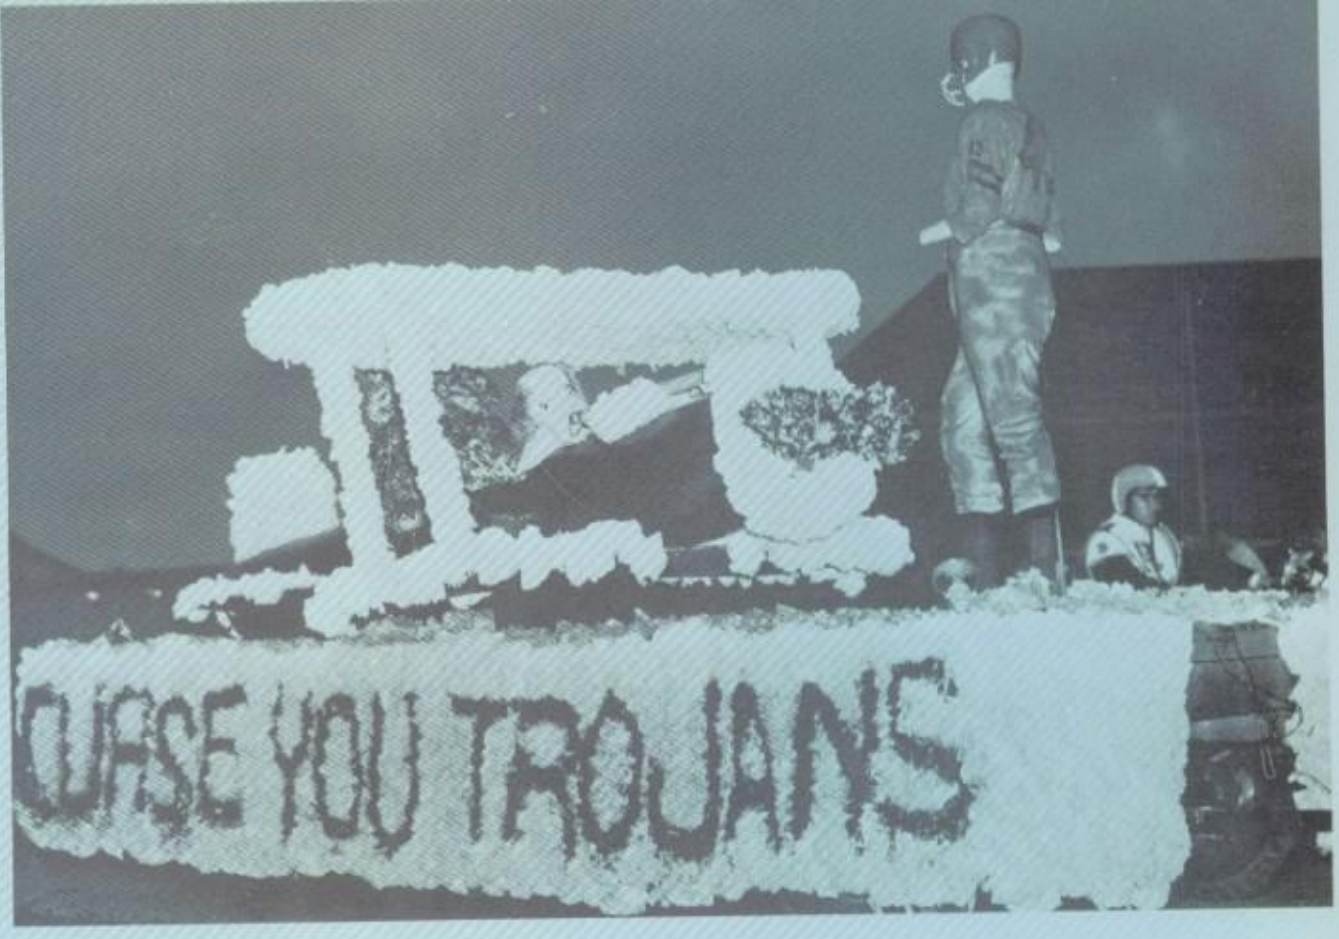
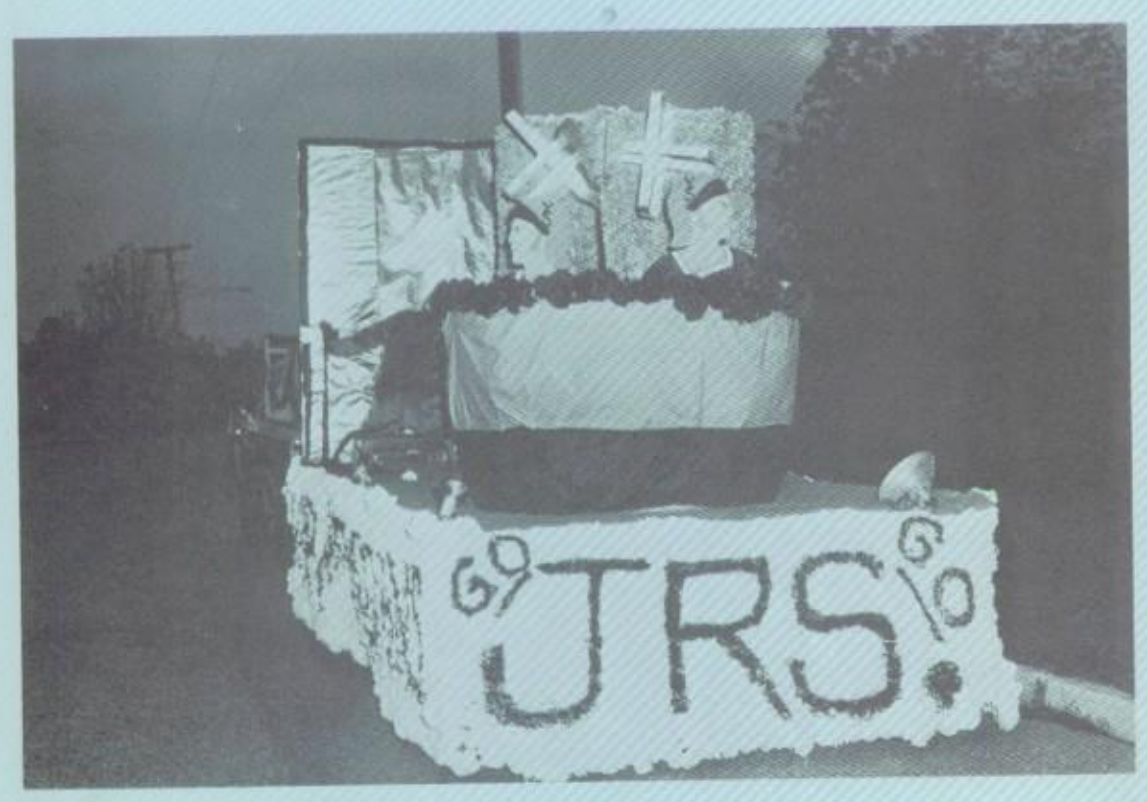
As October came around the students of Red Lion began to prepare for Homecoming. Weeks were spent in constructing floats and in getting ready for the dance. October 23 saw the annual Homecoming parade and pep rally where the candidates for queen were introduced and the winners of the float competition were announced. The sophomores with their float entitled "Leave 'Em Defenseless" won first prize. The next day the fighting Lions took on the Trojans of York Suburban in a tough battle in which Red Lion proved to be the better of the two teams by shutting out Suburban 17-0. Before the game, the moment everyone was waiting for arrived, and the Homecoming Queen Cynthia Winter was crowned. Finally Homecoming weekend 1970 came to an end with a dance where the queen and her court reigned.

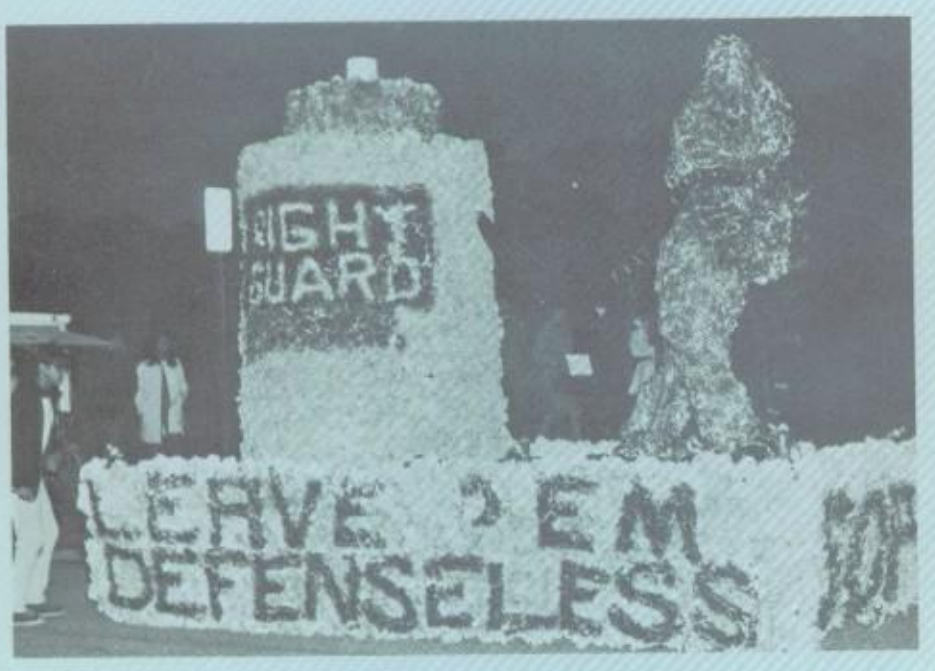


"Curse You Trojans" by the Senior class won honorable mention.



"Whip the Trojans" won Second prize for the Juniors.

For their hard work, the Sophomores were rewarded with First Prize.



The Freshman class entitled their float "Lions Rule the Empire."

The Family

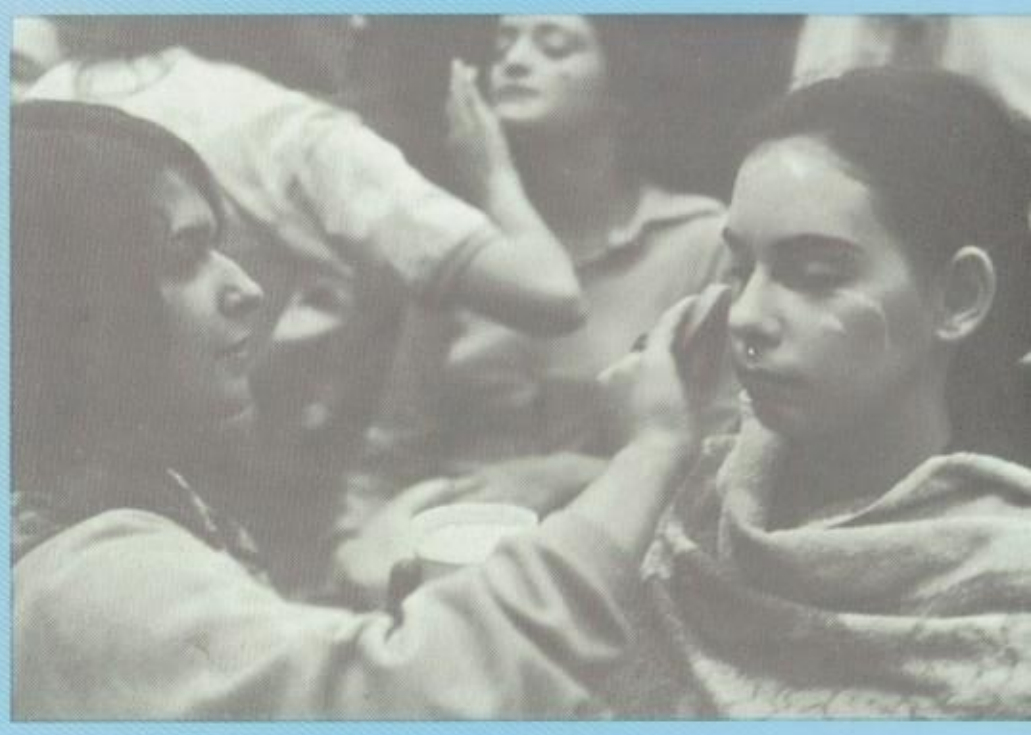
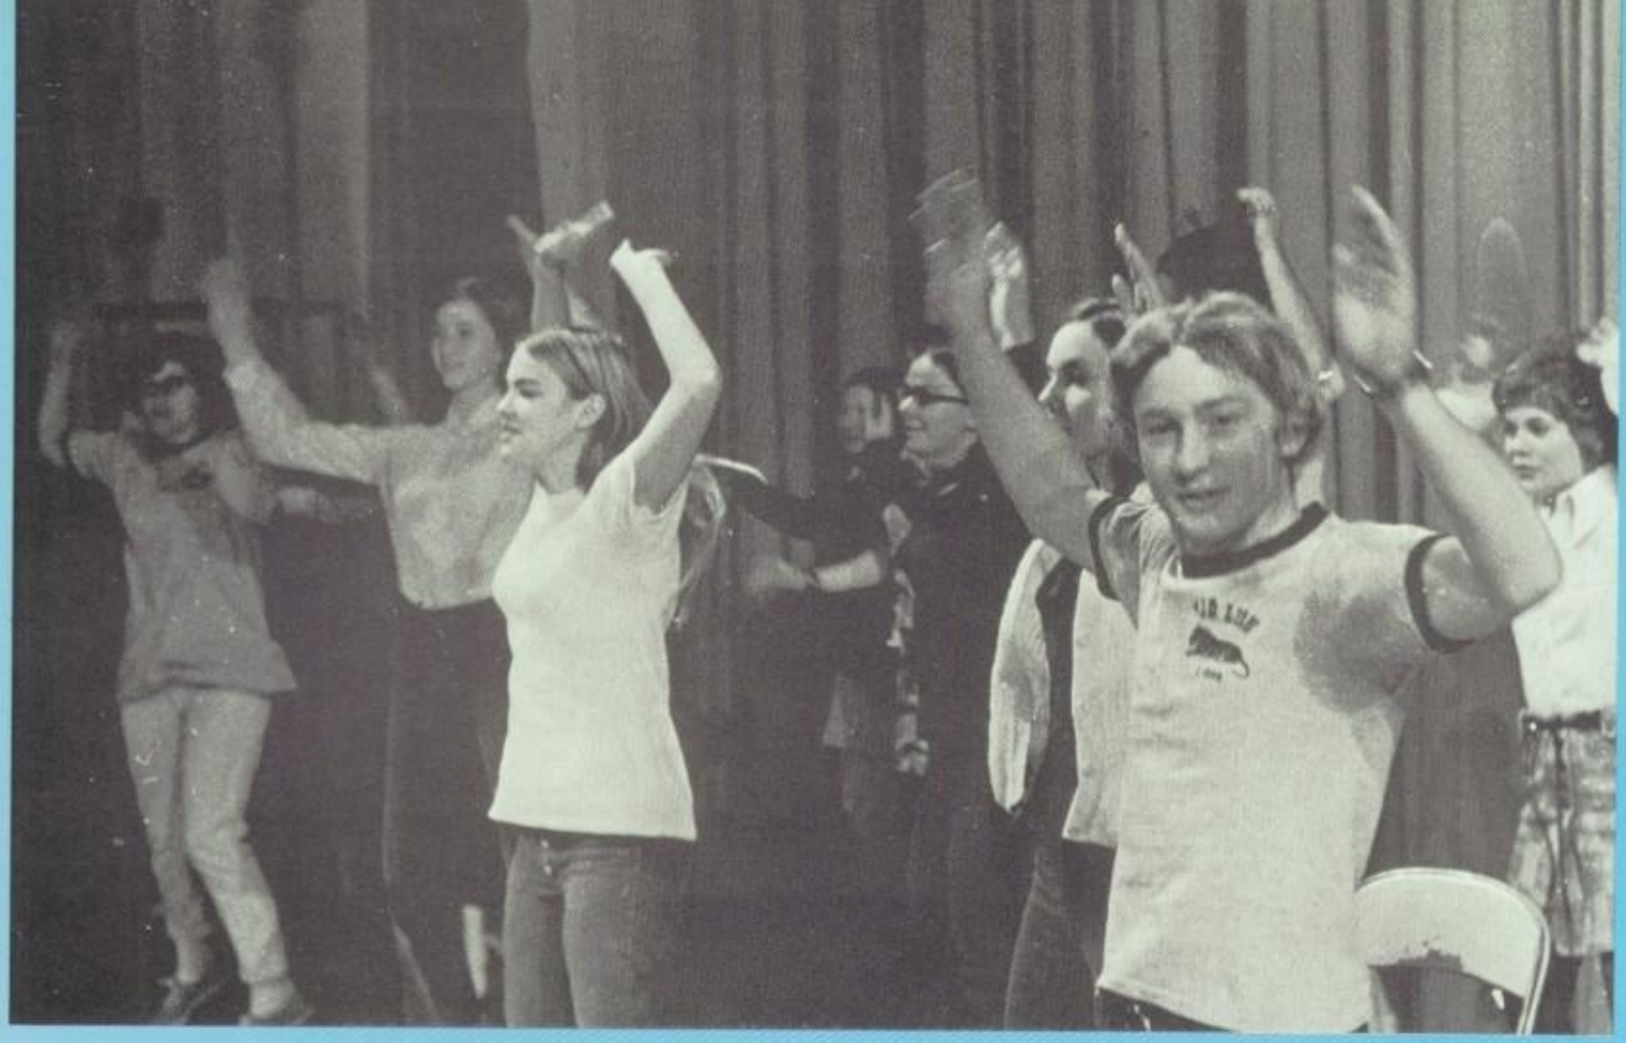
No play could avoid being a success when the entire cast immersed themselves completely in the production. And when the plot of the play emerged as a discussion of racial prejudices, the play just couldn't miss. With such a fabulous cast and such an entertaining plot, this play was bound to be a success. The dedicated cast occasionally collided with the director; but flying through speed rehearsals, warm-up exercises, last minute entrances, and fast costume changes, they hammered out an agreement, our play "The Family Nobody Wanted." The love story of Donny and Nan, the prejudice of the two Johnsons about their daughter's marriage, all the conflicts of the play, the cast showed as they saw. They hope they succeeded in bringing across a good play.

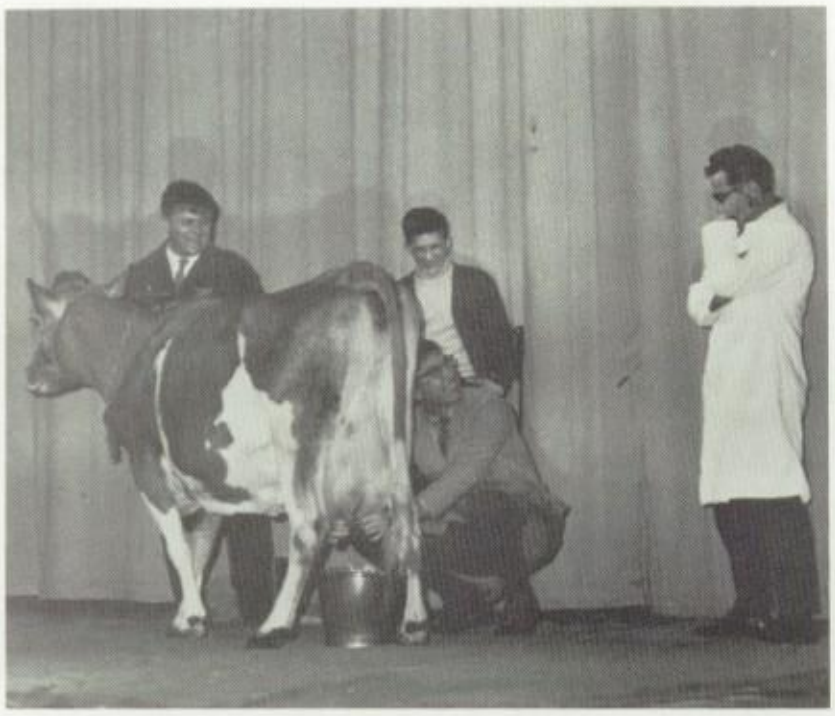
Nobody Wanted

The Mouse That Roared

What happens when a small, bankrupt European country declares war on the United States in order to lose the battle and receive financial aid? Grand Fenwick's plan backfires, and by an odd twist of fate, they win! In a hilarious, haphazard turn of events, a band of fourteenth century equipped soldiers manages to invade New York City. These soldiers capture the most powerful weapon of all time, the Q bomb, and cause the United States to sue for peace. Not only did the Senior Class Play "The Mouse that Roared" provide a lot of laughs for the entire cast and crew, but it also conveyed the message that there is a need for peace and understanding in the modern world.





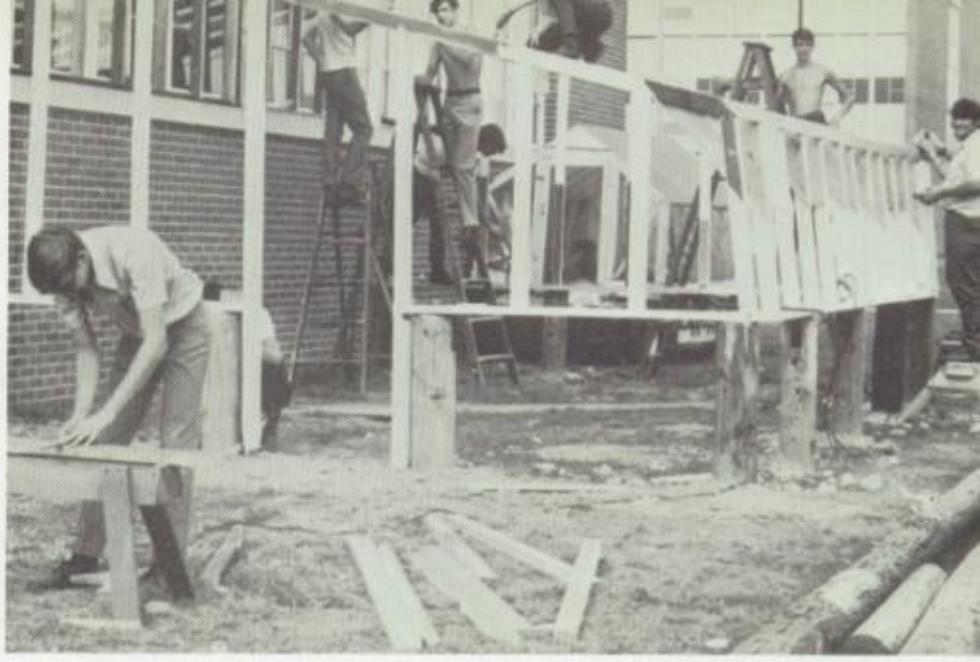


Each of the 1970 assemblies was a unique presentation, and at least one should have caught the interest of every student at Red Lion. . . . Students were particularly surprised to see Mr. Fitzkee competing with Mr. Wolfe in a milking contest during the FFA assembly . . . Beverly Buckingham, who had been chosen as FFA sweetheart, expressed how honored she was to hold this title. . . . Modeling the latest fashions, Marty Koons and Sheila Schlag presented new ideas in "easy to sew" creations. . . . As always, the international students' assembly was quite informative, and the exchange of ideas intrigued the student body.

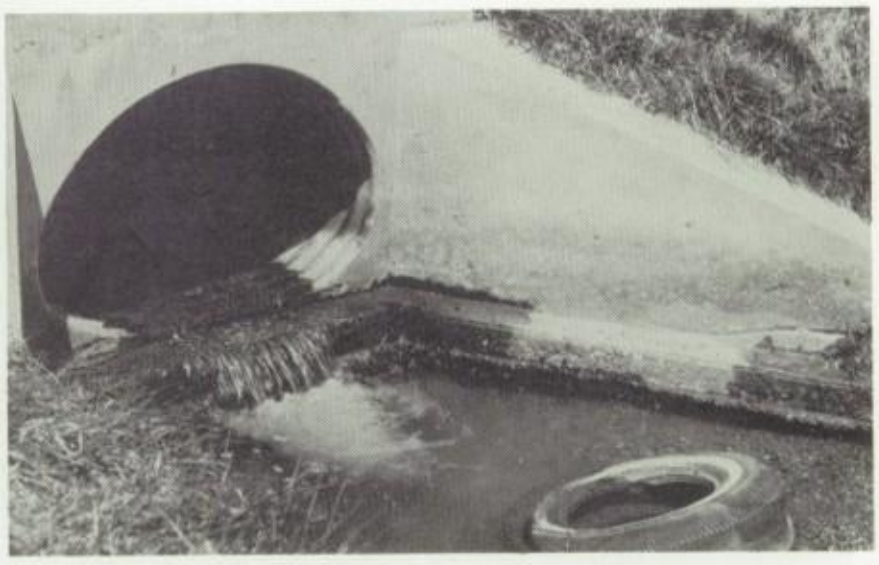
The performance of the Winchester Choir, which included many skits, received a standing ovation when the group depicted a high school principal as "the great chief" . . . Again, the senior class on its annual Class Day did a fabulous job in imitating Coach Dyke and Mr. Frits, in pantomiming Rowan and Martin's German soldier, and in singing "Mary Had a Little Lamb."

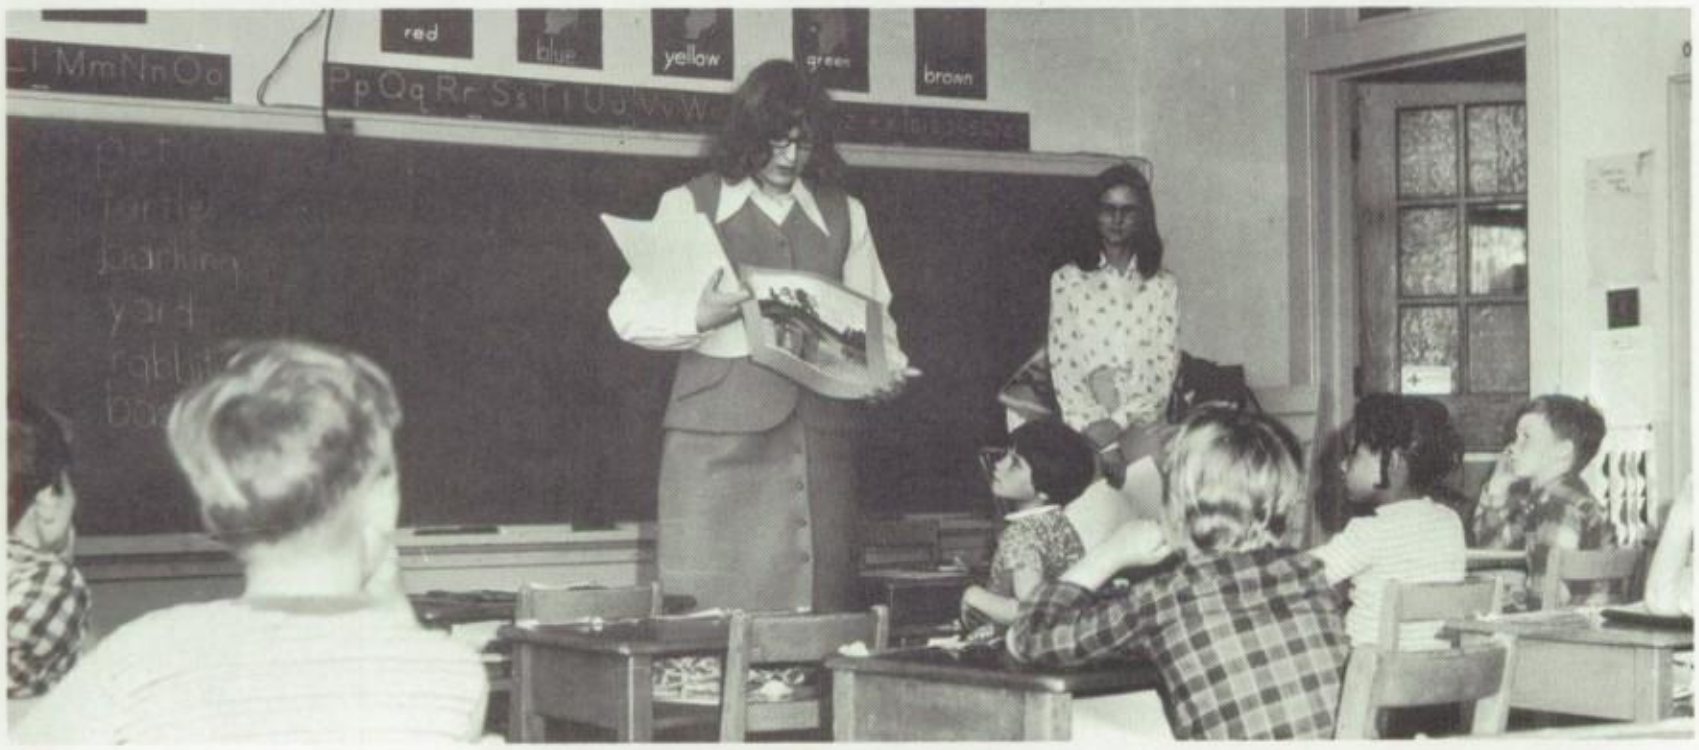
One of the more serious programs, which related closely to today's changing society, was the drug assembly presented by Teen Challenge. . . . Chosen as the best chemistry teacher, Mr. Shaffer graciously accepted his award for his outstanding achievement in the teaching profession. . . . Another suspenseful event included the induction of new members into the National Honor Society, a group known for its scholarship, leadership, character, and service. . . . Through the efforts of Carl Seitz, the veterans of World War I, World War II, the Korean War, and the Vietnam conflict, aroused the patriotic feelings of the audience. . . . As a part of the musical exchange assembly, Mr. Ward, director of the Junior High Band, led the group in an excellent collection of musical numbers.

Hoping to spur interest in a career in computer programming, one of our most exciting assemblies captivated the senses through the use of many vivid slides. . . . As the girls gazed admiringly at the weight lifters from York Barbell, the boys stared enviously at their bulging biceps. . . . The West Virginia Percussion Ensemble, using everything from African drums to an electric bass, made the crowd move to the music.

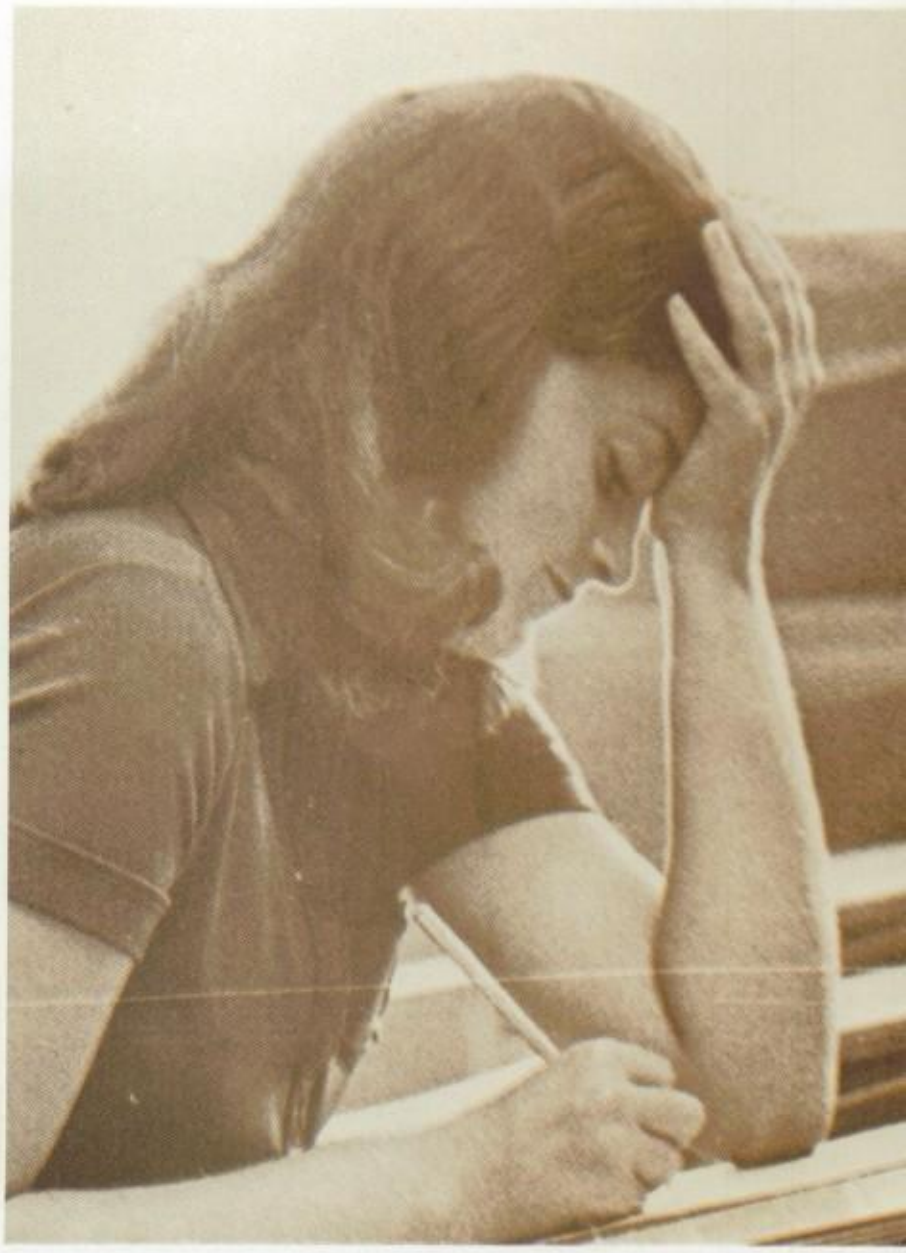


FFA boys work ardently on construction of our greenhouse . . . JCL members feast at their annual Roman banquet . . . Alan Miller prepares delicious chicken for the FFA barbecue . . . The student body elects the officers they want to hold Student Council offices.

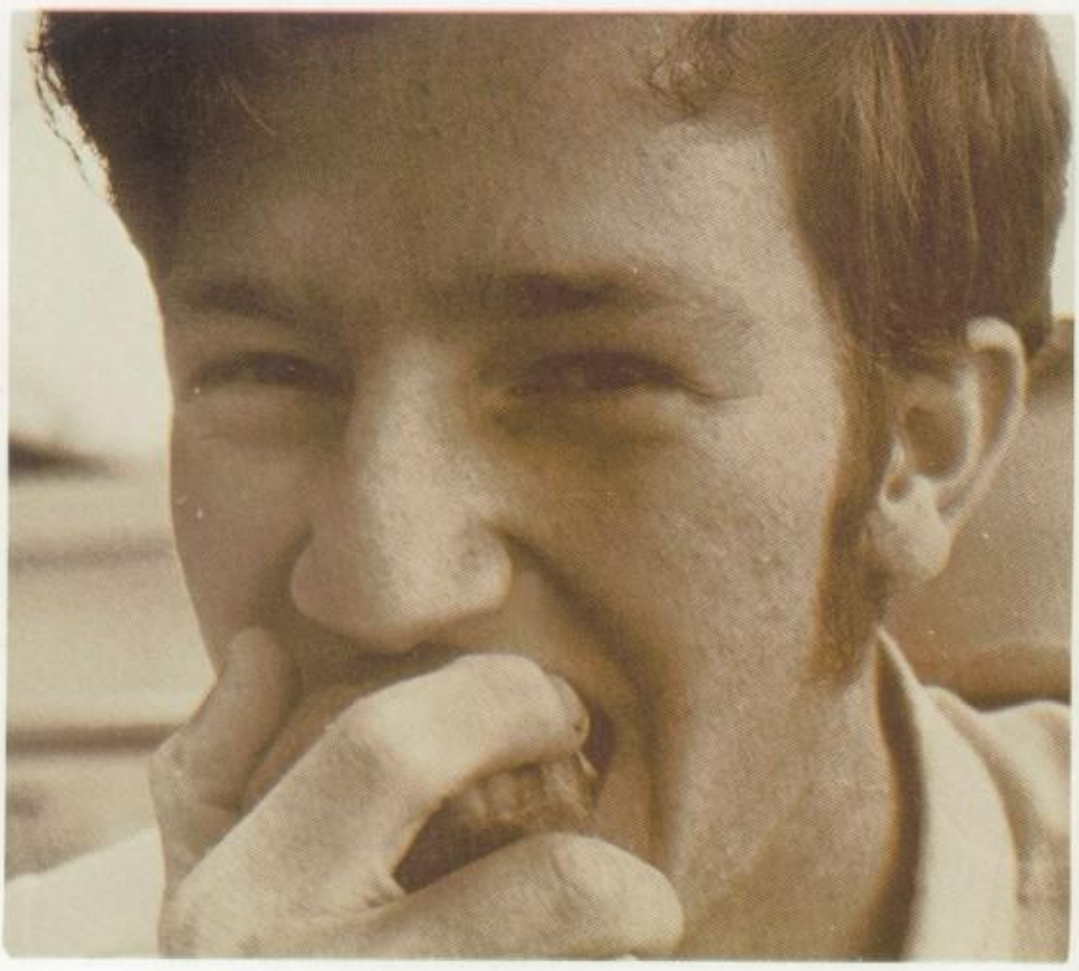




Modern art is displayed by the proud creators . . . Red Lion students promoted awareness on Earth Day by clearing trash from a creek . . . Sandy Downs talks with an elementary class about Earth Day . . . Friendship is being able to lean upon someone . . . These couples enjoy posing for a photographer.

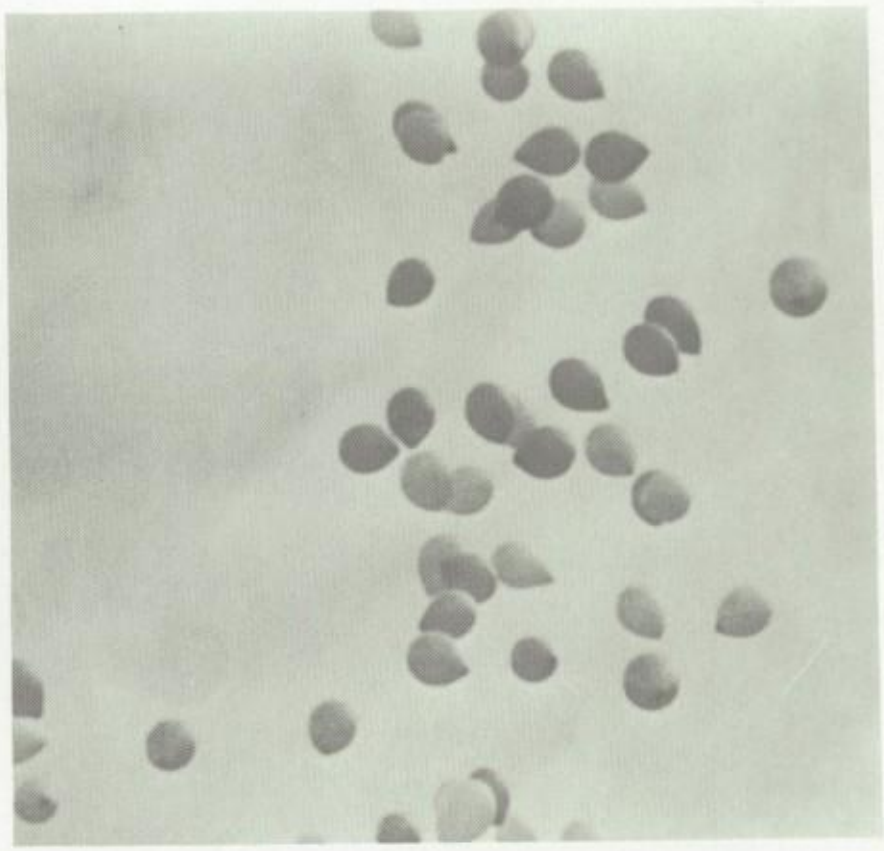


Janna Jacobs receives special help from Mr. Shaffer. . . . Another hard exam for Jotha Gable! . . . In the course of a busy day, a breath of fresh air does a body good. . . . An apple a day for Joel . . . Behind every successful assembly is a successful stage crew.

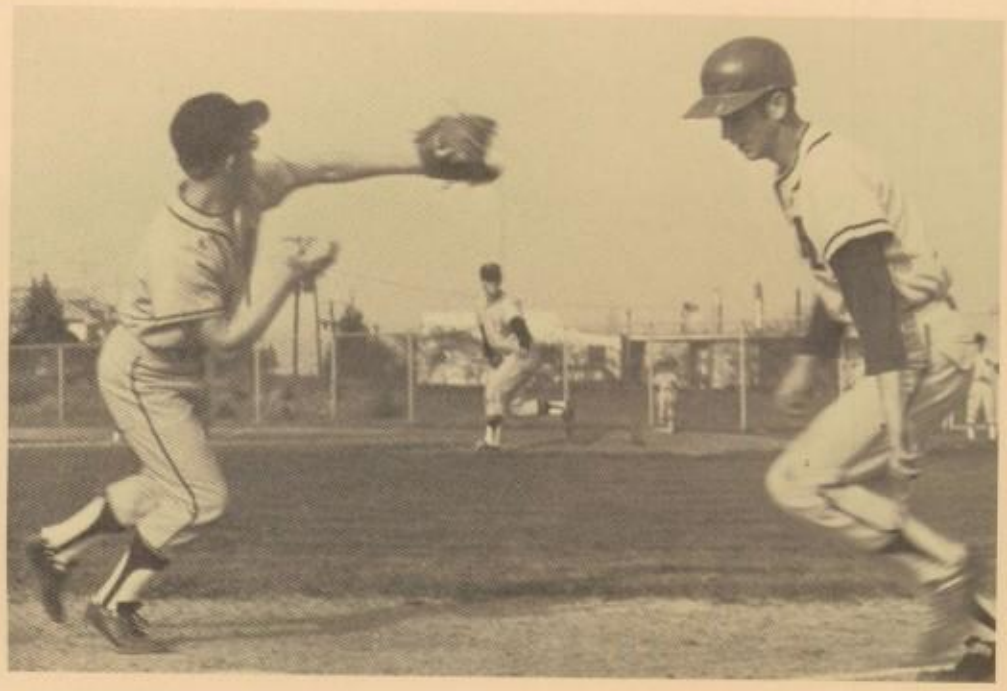


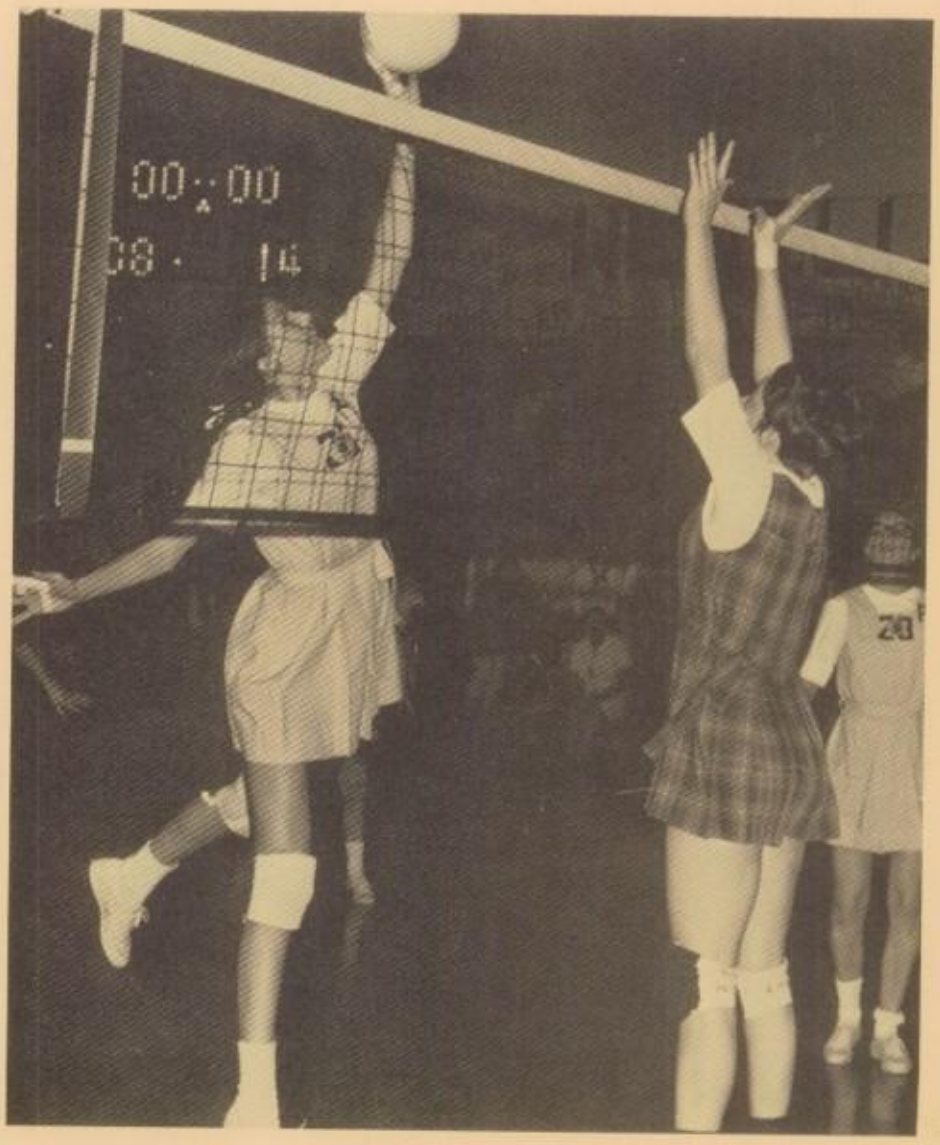
Dave Burke practices for basketball in gym class. . . . Where's the fire? . . . Janet Flaharty, Red Lion's Drum Majorette, enjoys participating in halftime activities. . . . Dave Koons finds a way to amuse himself at the Spring Carnival. . . . F.B.I.'s thirteen most wanted teachers?

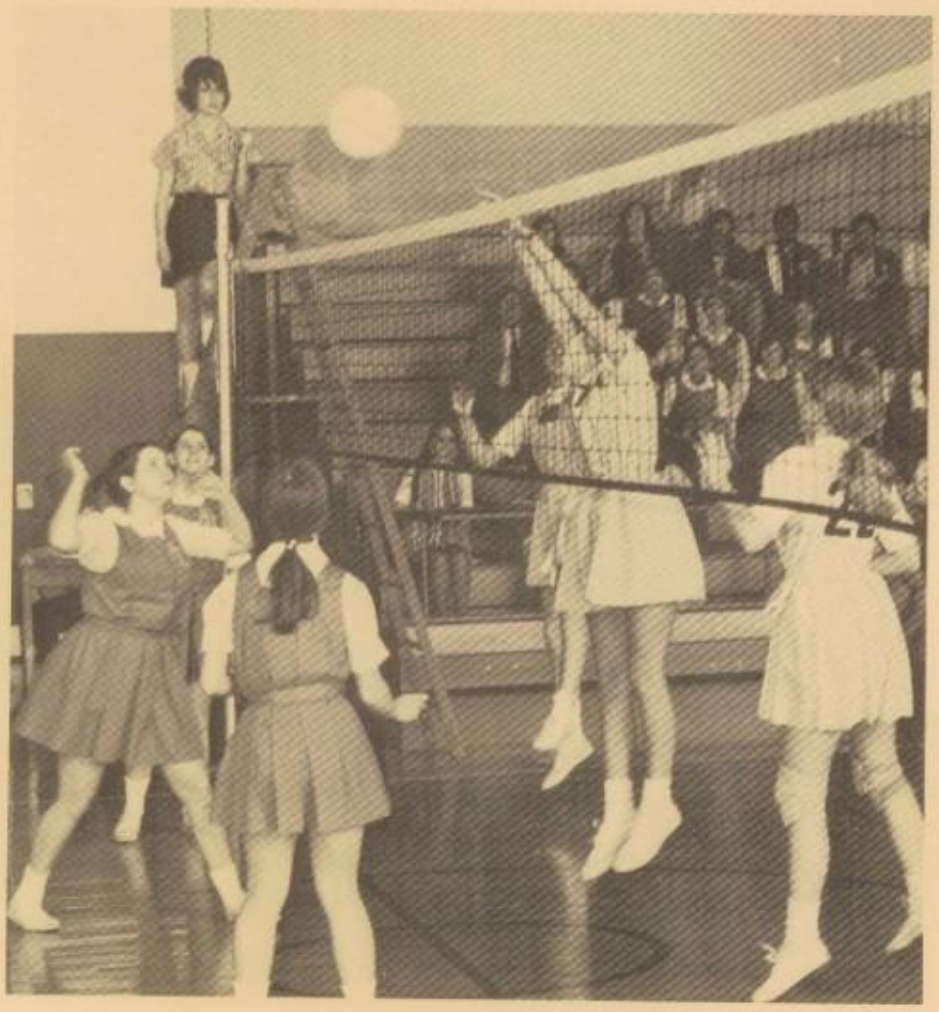
Steve Douglas in action at a pep rally . . . Cheerleaders successfully portray Charlie Brown characters . . . Cheerleaders cheer LIONS onward to another victory . . . Steve Chronister and Brad Keller display their athletic talents . . . Four of Red Lion's members of York County All-stars proudly display their football statistics.



Julie Ashton, Lora Patterson, and Kathy Saxon take time out for a brief rest . . . Up, up, and away go balloons in celebration of victory . . . Cheerleader Gerdith Laucks tries to fix her corsage after cheering so ardently . . . The Red Lion fans are captivated by the closeness of the scores . . . Kirk Johnson and Eric Warner proudly display the fact that they are champs . . . Carlos Wilson and Norman Jennings say LIONS are No. 1.

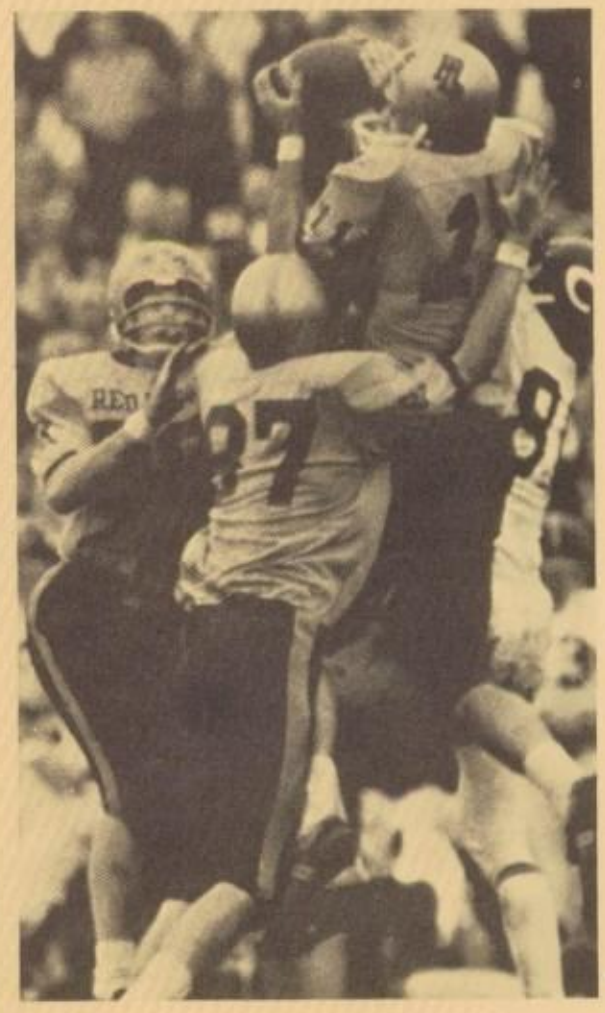


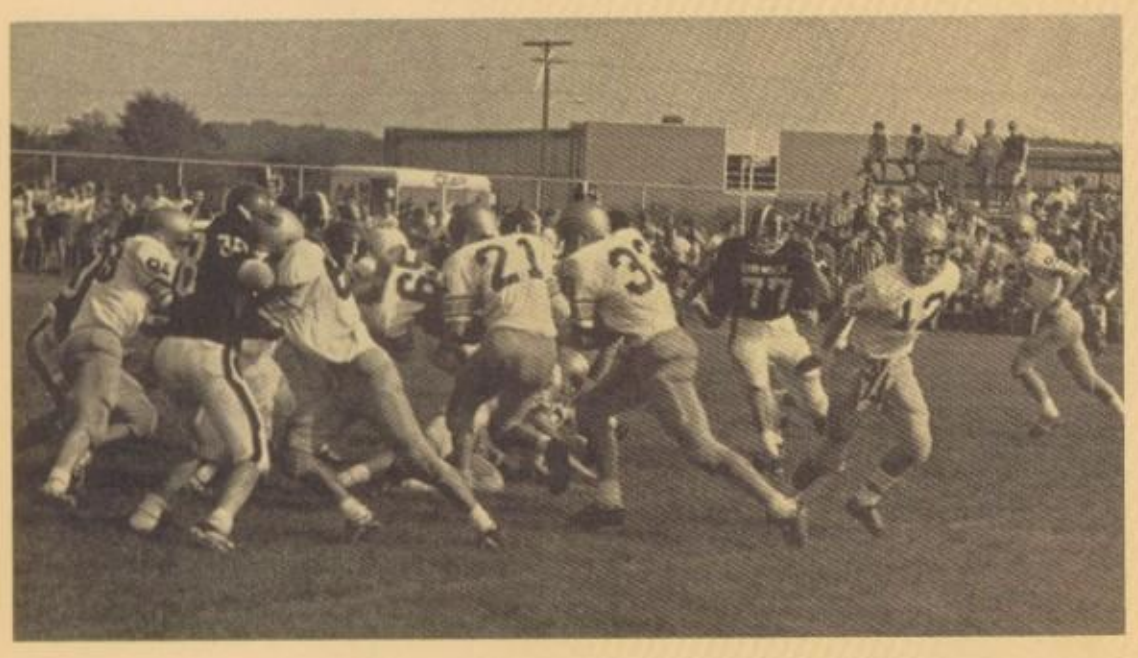


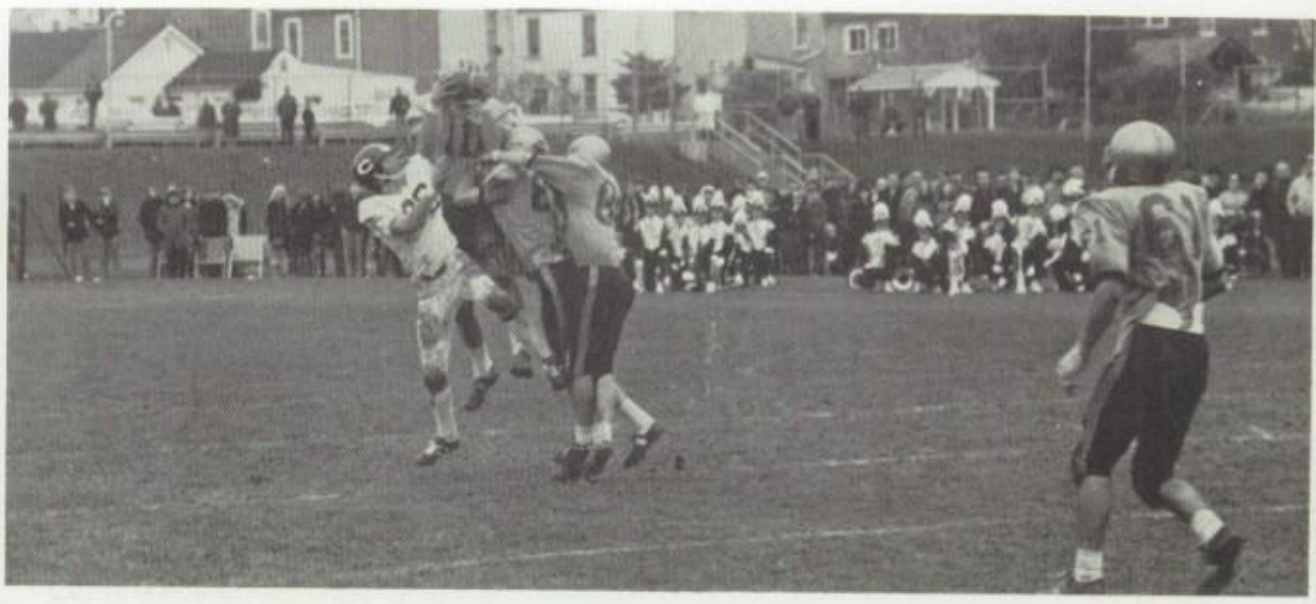


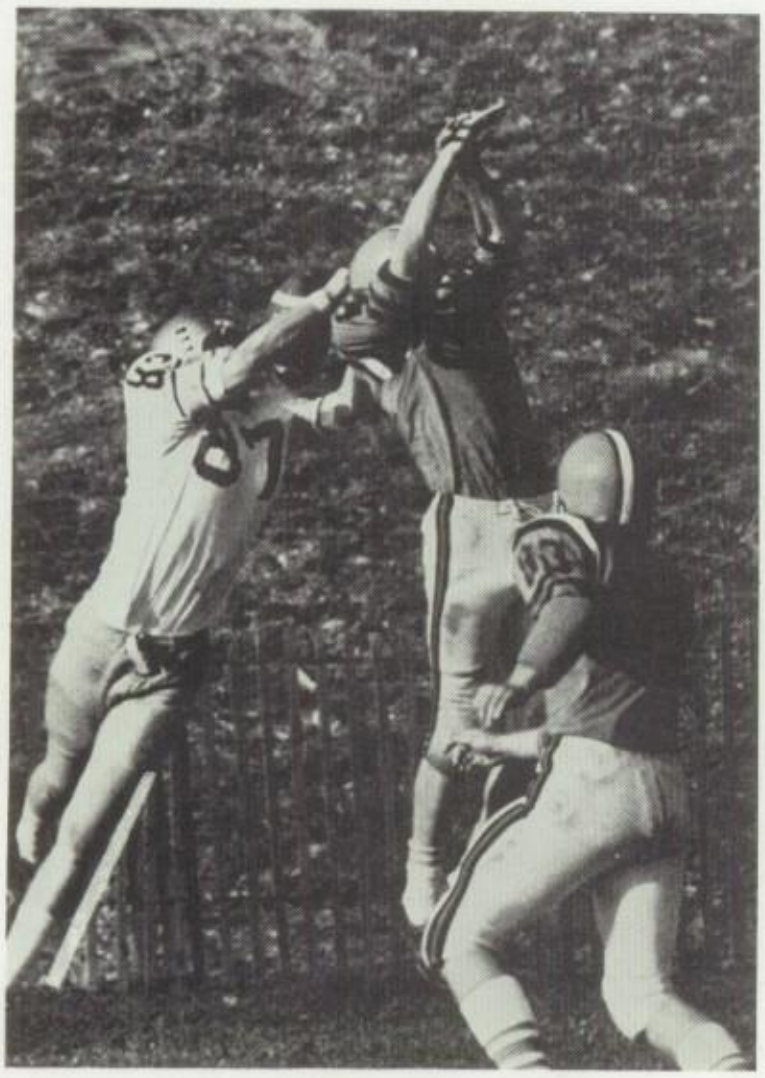
Spring at Red Lion brings student participation in many sports . . . baseball, track, volleyball. . . . Students enjoy displaying their athletic skills in both indoor and outdoor events.

Although cross country and track are two of Red Lion's less observed sports, the cindermen are doing a fine job. . . . Perhaps the most popular sport at Red Lion is football. Each Saturday afternoon the stands are packed with enthusiastic spectators who cheer the mighty Lions on to victory. This year the Lions took the league championship with a perfect season of ten wins and no losses.

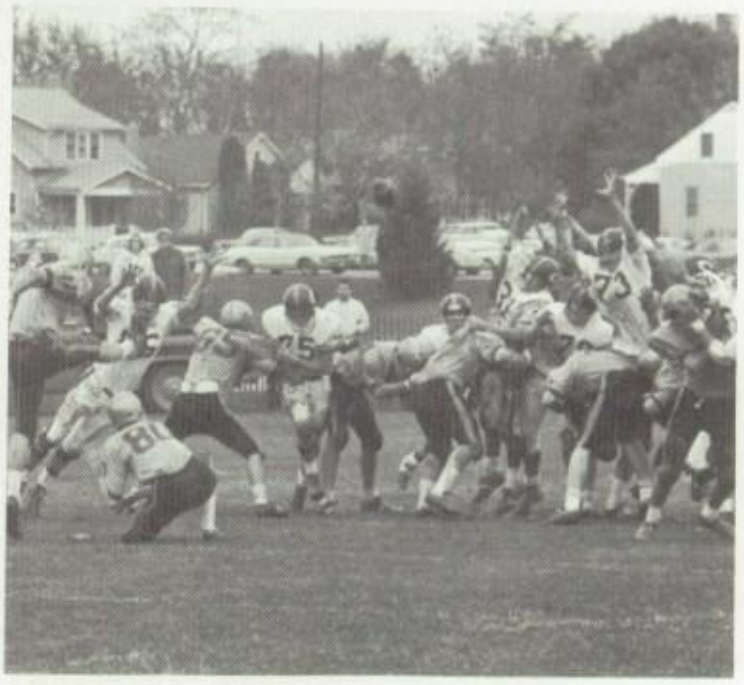


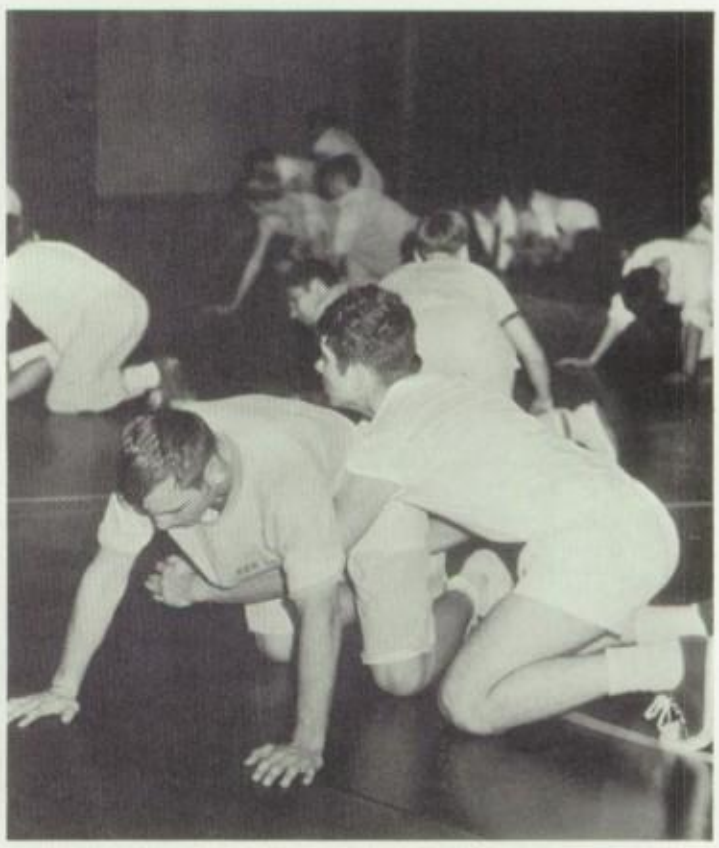






Red Lion fans anticipate the LIONS capture of the ball . . . LIONS outnumber their opponents three to one . . . Tom Talbert comes through again! . . . Although cheerleaders encourage their own teams, they are friends on the side lines . . . Each LION is wondering "Where is the ball?"





Quarterback Keith Green anticipates the next play given by Coach Dyke . . . Terry Gilbert and manager Linnemans look on in disbelief . . . The tired LIONS take a break for a sip of cold, clean water? . . . The wrestlers are practicing holds . . . Hockey players put in patient hours of practice.

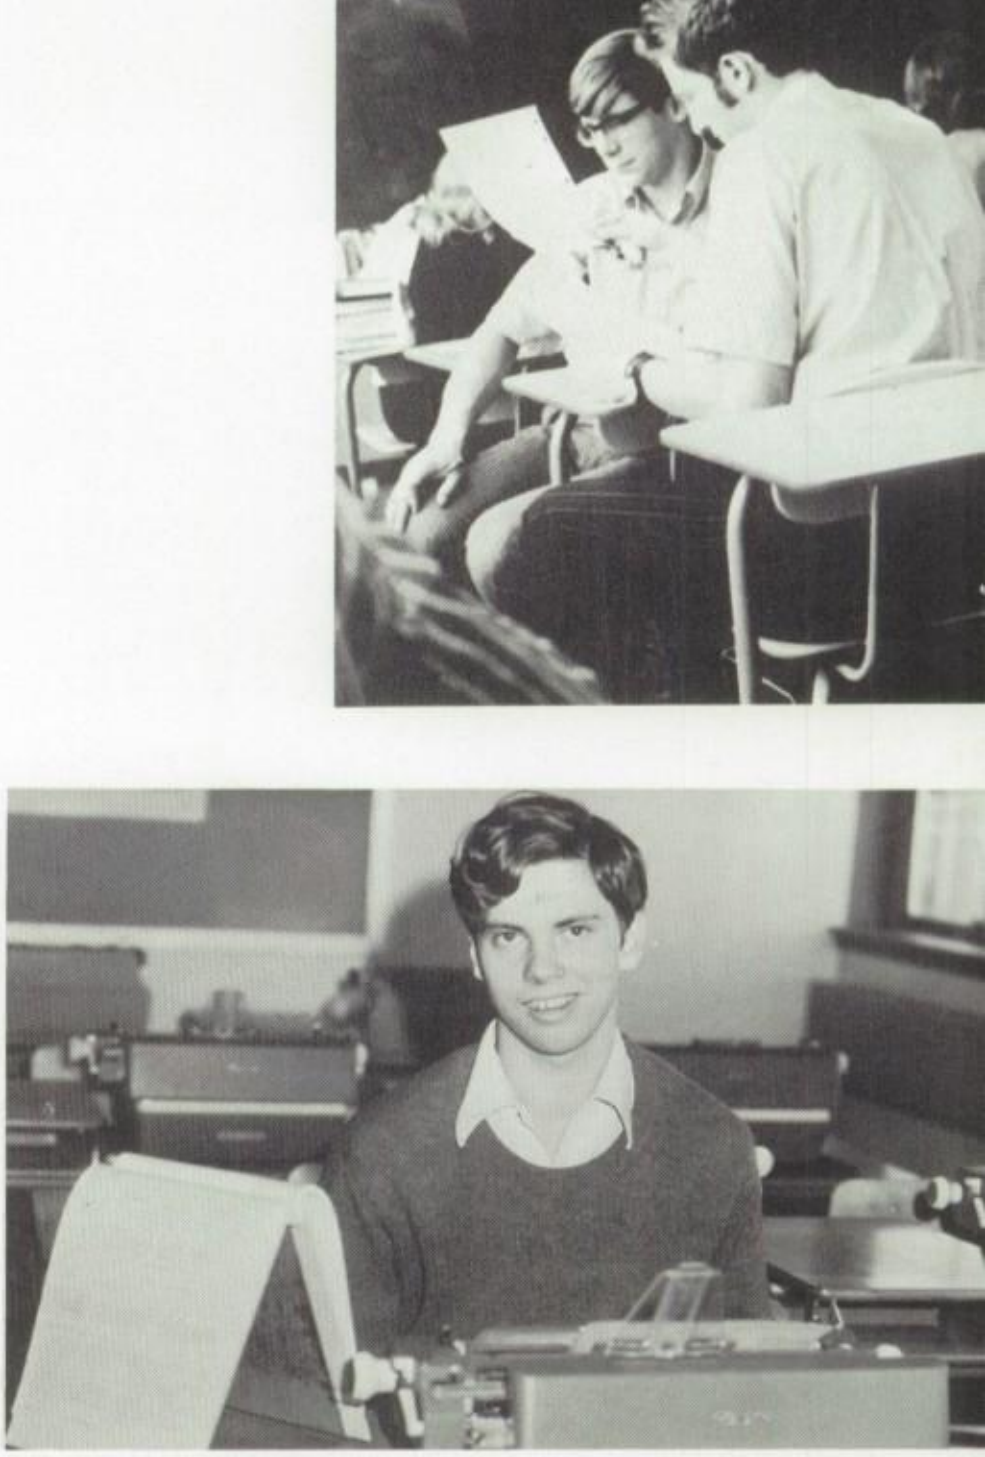
Exchange Students Become A Part Of Red Lion

Paivi Mantyla, our exchange student from southern Finland found Finnish schools more difficult than American schools. While in the United States, she stayed with the John Linnemans' family until her return in July. Paivi enjoys turkey and seafood, and is also a football fan.



Klaus-Peter Doering is our International Christian Youth Exchange Student. He hails from the southeastern section of West Germany and resides with the Ronald E. Fitzkee family while in America. Klaus is on the wrestling team and in the Ski Club; he likes pizza and subs.

Jane has rhythm.

Someone told a funny.

The Leaning Tower of Cooper gives way.

Rex runs the press.

Through the years Red Lion has been known for its football success, and this year was no exception as Coach Dyke and his coaching staff led the mighty Lions to the county championship. The Lions virtually roared through the season with an unblemished 10-0 record. As a result of last year's and this year's records, the Lions have maintained a thirteen game winning streak. Let's keep this streak going for next season.

Golfers Do Their Best

P. Moley, D. Landis, D. Ringler, D. Arnold, J. Poet, J. Hoffmaster, D. Smith

Composed of three seniors, five juniors, and one freshman, the golf team did its best with three wins, eight losses, and one tie. Because of their determination and enthusiasm, several golfers won Varsity letters. These include: Jeff Poet, Danny Smith, Phil Moley, Don Landis, and Jeff Hoffmaster, team manager. The team owes its accomplishments to its competent coach Truman Johnson. Although the team did not have a perfect season, it is looking forward to a more successful season next year.

The track had an excellent year finishing with a six and one record. This remarkable feat was accomplished under the expert guidance of Mr. Fondarvest, the coach. The team exhibited great determination and skill overpowering some of the roughest teams in the county.

This year our mighty LION cross country team broke even in its victories and defeats. Our coach led the boys to defeat Central, York Suburban, Eastern, and Spring Grove. Although Red Lion started the season by winning several meets, we unfortunately ended with three losses. The cross country team hopes to be even more victorious next season.

Joe Rexroth, senior cross country champ, runs down the home stretch.

With Charles Coombs as coach for the 1970 season, Red Lion's baseball team emerged with an admirable 5-6 record. Although each opponent seemed indomitable, York Suburban appeared to be Red Lion's toughest competitor. Under the leadership of Mr. Orwig and several returning lettermen, the 1971 baseball scores should be even more impressive.

This year was a challenging season for the tennis team as they won their first game, but the ball just didn't bounce their way. Set 'em Up, Spike 'em Over, Come On Girls, Hit 'em Over Girls' Volleyball is one of the oldest girls' sports at Red Lion. As a matter of fact, it is now one of the two existing girls' sports. In its fourth season, the volleyball team is steadily improving. Win or lose, Miss Steele, the coach, works very ardently with this team. Thus, the girls feel it's how they play the game that counts and hope for a better season next year.

Girls work together to beat their opponents.

Gerdith Laucks spikes another ball over the net, scoring a point for Red Lion.

Girls' field hockey team works hard for next year's first league game.

Although this has been the first season of the girls' field hockey team, the team has been practicing diligently. Their enthusiasm along with Miss Hoffman's great coaching has definitely influenced the playing ability of the team. The team hopes to have a much more successful season when they enter the league next year.

Lots of practice insures a winning season.

Again, another class is graduating from Red Lion Area Senior High School. As each class graduates, the challenges to be faced become greater and more varied. Each class must set its goals a little bit higher and strive a little bit harder to achieve these goals than the past class. The '71 graduates will be more independent, will be more responsible, and will be facing an exciting and different world when they depart with their diplomas and begin their careers. We will find out what life is all about. When we graduate, our lives are just beginning. The knowledge and friends we have obtained in high school are only the starting point. Our diploma reads "go." We must take one step at a time and as our motto states, "A journey of a thousand miles begins with one step." Many steps have to be made to obtain world peace. Our country is now involved in war, has been, and may be in the future. Since our generation will someday be the leaders of our country, let us all remember that "Peace is not made at the council tables, or by treaties, but in the hearts of men." May we each strive to make this world a better place in which to live. With our immense amount of resources, opportunities, and ambitions, we the 1971 graduates can help accomplish this goal.
